

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Q1: How can international students apply to the University of Jordan?

A: International students must apply through the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research via the portal: <https://studyinjordan.jo/Ar/Explore#apply>. The university only accepts international student applications forwarded through this portal.

Q2: When does the application period start for international students?

A: The application period for international students usually begins in June each year. For Jordanian students, it starts after the announcement of the Jordanian Tawjihi results.

Q3: Is there an entrance exam required for admission?

A: No entrance exam is required for admission. However, admitted students must take placement (leveling) exams in Arabic, English, and Computer Skills. Failing any may require the student to register for remedial courses.

Q4: Does the University of Jordan recognize the American high school diploma?

A: Yes, but students must first obtain an equivalency for their certificate from the Ministry of Education in Jordan. Without the equivalency, students are not eligible to apply.

Q5: Can I transfer credits from another university?

A: Credit transfer is evaluated by the relevant academic department after admission. The student's original university must be recognized by the Ministry of Higher Education in Jordan.

Q6: What is the tuition fee for Medicine for international students?

A: The tuition fee for international students admitted to Medicine is $500 per credit hour.

Q7: Can tuition be paid in installments?

A: No, tuition must be paid in full before the beginning of each semester.

Q8: What is the admission fee for Jordanian students admitted in regular program?

A: The admission semester fee is 128 JOD, while the first and second semesters cost 53 JOD each, and the summer semester is 43 JOD.

Q9: Are there any scholarships for international students?

A: Generally, the University of Jordan does not offer scholarships for international students. However, partial scholarships are available for non-Arab students studying Arabic or Shari'a, allowing them to pay the same fees as Jordanian students.

Q10: When does course registration open for new students?

A: Registration for new students begins in mid-September for the first semester. Students register for courses through registration.ju.edu.jo.

Q11: What is the maximum and minimum credit hour load per semester for the bachelor's programs?

A: The minimum is 12 and the maximum is 18 credit hours per regular semester. In the summer semester, the maximum is 10 credit hours.

Q12: Can I register for both Philosophy and Business courses as an exchange student?

A: Yes, subject to availability. The language of instruction for each course is determined by the faculty and is announced upon course offering.

Q13: How can I request verification of my certificate?

A: The University of Jordan only sends verified documents to official institutions via email. To request verification:

1. Provide your student ID number.
2. Send the official email address of the institution.
3. Make a payment of 60 USD to the university's account or 50 USD on-campus payment.
4. Attach the payment receipt to your email.

Q14: Can the university send my certificate and transcript to me directly?

A: No. Documents are sent only to official institutions or through an authorized person. Students may authorize a representative to collect documents in person.

Q15: How do I authorize someone to collect documents on my behalf?

A: Write an authorization letter including the name of the person collecting the documents, sign it, and send it from your official student email, or have it notarized by the Jordanian embassy where you live.

Q16: Does the University offer dormitories for female students?

A: Yes. Dormitories are available and managed by the Deanship of Student Affairs. Applications can be submitted via <https://eservices.ju.edu.jo/dormapplication/home.aspx>.

Q17: Can I register twice a year?

A: Yes. Registration is available twice a year: once for the first semester (October intake) and once for the second semester (February intake).

Q18: Does the university assist with student visa procedures?

A: The University does not handle visa issuance. Students must obtain a visa through Jordanian embassies. For support, contact the Deanship of Student Affairs.

Q19: What if I missed the course registration deadline?

A: If you are a newly admitted student and missed registration, contact the Admission and Registration Unit. Course registration typically starts in mid-September.

Q20: Can I get a refund if I received a scholarship after paying tuition?

A: Refunds are handled by the Financial Department. Refund requests are only processed upon receiving an official letter confirming the scholarship sponsorship.

Q21: What is the process for verifying certificates issued by the University of Jordan?

A: The University of Jordan verifies academic certificates only upon official request from institutions, not individuals. The requester must send an email from an official domain and attach the necessary verification form and a copy of the certificate. A payment of 60 USD is also required.

Q22: What is the minimum passing grade for undergraduate students at the University of Jordan?

A: The minimum passing grade for an undergraduate course is a “D”, and students must maintain a cumulative GPA of at least 2.00 out of 4.00 to remain in good academic standing.

Q23: Does the University of Jordan accept transfer students from international universities?

A: Yes. However, the university must first receive an official equivalency from the Ministry of Education in Jordan, and the faculty of the intended major must approve the transferred courses after admission.

Q24: How can students authorize someone to collect official documents on their behalf?

A: Students must submit a written authorization signed by them, stating the name of the person authorized. This must be sent from the student's university email. First-degree relatives (parents or siblings) do not require formal authorization.

Q25: Can I request electronic copies of my official documents?

A: No. The University of Jordan does not issue official academic documents electronically to individuals. Documents can only be emailed to official institutional addresses or issued in person.

Q26: Are course descriptions available online for verification or academic transfer purposes?

A: Course descriptions must be collected directly from the academic department. After collection, they should be notarized, signed by the registrar, and stamped to be accepted internationally.

Q27: Can a student reprint a lost certificate from the University of Jordan?

A: Yes. The student must apply in person or authorize someone to do it on their behalf. A replacement fee must be paid, and identity verification is required.

Q28: Is there an entrance exam for admission to undergraduate programs?

A: No entrance exam is required for undergraduate admission. However, placement tests in English, Arabic, and Computer are mandatory after admission.

Q29: When do registration periods typically open for new students?

A: For international students, registration usually starts in June. For Jordanian students, it begins after the Tawjihi results are announced.

Q30: Are international students eligible for housing in university dormitories?

A: Yes. The Deanship of Student Affairs manages dormitory applications. Students can apply online or contact the deanship for housing services, this service is only for female students.

Q31: Does the University of Jordan accept predicted grades for high school certificates?

A: No. Only final, officially evaluated certificates are accepted. All non-Jordanian certificates must be officially evaluated by the Ministry of Education in Jordan.

Q32: Can students defer admission to the next semester?

A: No, students are required to commit to studying in the semester of their admission. Postponement is only allowed starting from the second semester after completing the first semester of study.

Q33: What should I do if my high school certificate equivalency is delayed?

A: You can apply for admission, but your file will not be processed until the Ministry of Education issues the final equivalency before the deadline.

Q34: How is the tuition fee paid for international students?

A: Tuition is paid in USD to the University of Jordan's official bank account. A detailed payment guide is provided upon acceptance.

Q35: Can I apply to more than one major at the University of Jordan?

A: The application system allows prioritizing majors. However, acceptance is granted to one major based on your GPA, availability, and competition level.
